SONG OF THE RYE

I Was made to be eaten
And not be drank;
To be threshedin a barn,
Not soaked in a tank
I come as a blessing
When put through a mill;
As a blight and a curse
When run through a still.

Make me up into loaves,
And your children are fed;
But if in drink,
I'll starve them instead.
In bread I'm a servant,
The eater shall rule;
In drink I am master,
The drinker a fool.
